

Code of Conduct for Nurses

The College of Nurses of Ontario's Code of Conduct sets the standard of practice that all nurses are accountable to.

Principles

- 1 Nurses respect the dignity of patients and treat them as individuals
- 2 Nurses work together to promote patient well-being
- 3 Nurses maintain patients' trust by providing safe and competent care
- 4 Nurses work respectfully with colleagues to best meet patients' needs
- 5 Nurses act with integrity to maintain patients' trust
- 6 Nurses maintain public confidence in the nursing profession.